We converted a dog into a robust seat for children.

Mariscal's well-known ability to turn drawings into three-dimensions meant that the dog Julián, one of Los Garriris characters, becomes a piece of furniture in the Me Too children's furniture collection by Magis. This multifunctional piece of furniture, made in moulded plastic, in basic colours (white, red, green and yellow) is childproof and adult proof. It may be a seat, but it can also be a train, a boat, a car or a mountain to be climbed, because for a child's imagination, it can be any of these things. Or a comfortable stool that fits in well in the adults' dining room.
